Life Reflections of Loleti Mae Walker

The Journey of Loleti Mae Walker began on July 8, 1963. Loleti was born on June 8, 1963 in Hazlehurst, Mississippi to Willie Lee Walker and Lula Erlene Walker (Rea). Loleti Mae Walker, age 62, passed away peacefully on Wednesday, February 11, 2026, at Haven Hall Health Care Center, Brookhaven, Mississippi, surrounded by love. Though doctors once believed she would live only six short years, she defied every expectation and blessed this world with more than six decades of strength, resilience, and quiet courage.

Loleti, faced significant physical challenges from the very beginning of her life. Despite these obstacles, she became a living testament to perseverance and determination. Her life was not defined by limitations, but by the depth of her spirit and the love she both gave and received.

Through every trial, Loleti showed a strength that inspired those around her. She had a gentle presence and a beautiful way of communicating love — whether through her smile, her eyes, or simply the comfort of her presence. Those who knew her understood that her life was a miracle in motion.

Loleti leaves behind her loving, mother, Lula Erlene Walker; sister, LeTenia Walker; niece, Tyonna Wilson; aunt, Lillian Eanes (Rea); uncles, Blackwell, Milton (Lois) Rea, Willie (Elizabeth) Rea, Richard (Linda) Rea; and a host of devoted family, friends, and caregivers, who were privileged to share in her remarkable journey. Her life reminds us that worth is not measured by physical ability, but by the love we carry and the impact we leave on others.

She was preceded in death by her beloved father, Willie Lee Walker; her grandparents, UL and Rachel Rea and host of family and brothers and sisters in Christ. Though her body has found rest, her story of strength and perseverance will live on in the hearts of all who loved her.

A Life Beyond Limits

They said six years would be her stay,
A fleeting light, then fade away.
But heaven had a different plan—
She showed the strength of a braver span.

Through silent trials, through fragile days,
She walked her own determined ways.
Not measured by what she could not do,
But by the love she quietly grew.

A smile, a glance, a tender touch,
She taught us all that life is much
More than the body's fragile frame—
The soul outlives, the heart's the flame.

Though many loved ones went before,
She carried on, and gave still more.
Now free from pain, her spirit flies,
Unbound beneath eternal skies.

Six years they said... yet sixty-two
Of courage, grace, and strength so true.
Her life, a gift beyond all measure—
Her memory, our lasting treasure.
